

Home Page

The screenshot shows the homepage of Oil & Gas Eurasia. At the top, there is a red header bar with a sign in / join, newsletter, editor's blog, ogemag, events, and corrosion conference links. Below the header is the main navigation menu with categories: gas&lng, future energy, oil&oil products, offshore&marine, frontier markets, and more. The main content area features a grid of news cards. Some cards are labeled with categories like Gas&LNG, Frontier Markets, and Offshore&Marine. Headlines include "Novatek to sell interest in Novatek's Arctic LNG...", "Total buys into LNG terminals in Murmansk, Kamchatka", "Greece's Energean strikes gas in Israel's offshore", and "BP and partners sanction $6 billion Azeri Central East development offshore Azerbaijan". Below the news grid is a "trending now" section with a single card for "Total buys into LNG terminals in Murmansk, Kamchatka". The "today" section shows the date as Wednesday, May 1, 2019. The "headlines" section contains a larger image of an offshore oil rig and a list of five news items. The "around the world" section features a card for "China dominates GlobalData refining forecasts to 2023" and another for "Allweiler exhibits intelligent pump monitor at Hannover". The "spotlight" section has a large image of a man and a headline for "Marine Biz Hookup: Evac Water Waste Management Buys Transvac Systems". Below the spotlight are three smaller cards: "Big oil Texas ranks first in Wind Power as well", "Anadarko Deal Gives Chevron Edge in Permian", and "Allweiler exhibits intelligent pump monitor at Hannover". At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with the "Oil & Gas Eurasia" logo, a copyright notice, and links for About Us and Contact.
